

Trash knows no boundaries.

Just like a raindrop can travel from a stream to the ocean litter can find its way from the middle of the country to the sea. When you dispose of your trash wisely, you're helping to keep all of North America — and our oceans — clean.

Learn how your litter travels at www.laststoptheocean.com

